

Author Visit Book Order Form

On November 30th Assumption School welcomes New York City author Courtney Sheinmel to visit with grades 1 – 6. Her discussion will include the adventures in the Stella Batts series that illustrate how the small incidents in the life of a child can have the most impact. She will also discuss the first in the recently published Kindness Club series that teaches how showing little bits of kindness can make a big difference.

Stella Batts and the Kindness Club are available for presale to students in all grades. You may wish to visit Courtney’s website for more information about each of the titles below at www.courtneysheinmel.com.

The books will be delivered to school and autographed by the author on the day of her visit. A portion of sales will be donated back to Assumption.
