

Spring Musical Commitment and Responsibility Contract – Freaky Friday

Participating in Assumption’s musical production provides a unique and rewarding experience for students. In order to best serve the needs and goals of producing a major musical, participants should be students who are willing and able to make a total commitment to the rigorous schedule involved in producing this type of show.

It is necessary that parents and students are aware of the commitment and responsibilities required to be a part of this show.

Information to know:

Most Rehearsals are Tuesdays and Thursdays 4-6pm. Must be available for all rehearsals May 13th-17th (No missed rehearsals the week of the show)

Show Dates: May 17th & 18th .

Attendance: Cast members are only allowed 2 unexcused absences before being removed from the show. This does not include absences due to illness.

Punctuality: You must be on time for rehearsals for both drop off and pick up.

Behavior: Behavior disruptions will not be tolerated. You will be removed from the play if you cannot show appropriate, respectful behavior.

Academics: Schoolwork comes first. When we are waiting to rehearse, you should be working on homework or studying.

Transportation: Rehearsals are 4-6pm. Students must either go to afterschool or return back to school at 4pm if they go home after school. Students who do not attend school may not attend play practice that day.

Cell phones will be collected and the beginning of rehearsal and returned after each rehearsal.

We have read and understand the commitments and responsibilities contract.

We pledge our cooperation and willingness to support the drama program to the best of our abilities.

We understand that failure to comply with any of the stated requirements will result in a review of the cast member, notifying the parents, and possibly expulsion from the play.
