

January 4, 2019

“A new year is unfolding – like a blossom with petals curled tightly concealing the beauty within.

Lord, let this year be filled with the things that are truly good – with the comfort of warmth in our relationships, with the strength to help those who need our help and the humility and openness to accept help from others.

As we make our resolutions for the year ahead, let us go forward with great hope that all things can be possible – with Your help and guidance.”

Dear Parents,

Happy New Year and welcome back! While it was a great Christmas break, I was so happy to see your kids coming back through the school doors last week. I hope all of you enjoyed your time with family and friends and accomplished at least half the things you thought you could do! Phyllis and I thank you for your thoughtful and kind Christmas remembrances of us.

As we move ahead into 2019, may it be for all of us a year filled with peace, kindness, good health and happiness.

Sincerely,

Sister Merris
