Be thankful that you don't already have everything you desire. If you did, what would there be to look forward to?

Be thankful when you don't know something, for it gives you the opportunity to learn.

Be thankful for the difficult times. During those times you grow.

Be thankful for your limitations, because they give you opportunities for improvement.

Be thankful for each new challenge, because it will build your strength and character.

Be thankful for your mistakes. They will teach you valuable lessons.

Be thankful when you're tired and weary, because it means you've made a difference.

It's easy to be thankful for the good things. A life of rich fulfillment comes to those who are also thankful for the setbacks. Gratitude can turn a negative into a positive.

Find a way to be thankful for your troubles, and they can become your blessings.

Dear Parents,

The teachers and I want to wish all of you a Happy Thanksgiving and not miss this opportunity to let you know how thankful and grateful we are to be a part of your families here at Assumption School. All of us carry around so many burdens and sorrows deep within us, that its good to have a day that reminds us that there is still so much to be thankful for in our lives.

Wishing you days filled with gratitude.

Sincerely,

Sister Merris
