BASKETBALL

Holy cow we've had quite the two weeks in the world of Assumption Athletics and the CYO Finals are this weekend.

Frenzy Recap

You can't spell "Frenzy Champion" without A.S.S.U.M.P.T.I.O.N... or something like that.

The 7th grade boys entered the 8th grade bracket and took 3rd place falling to host team OLS. In a Frenzy First, Jeff Wesner won the 50/50 three consecutive nights. Thanks to his generous financial donation to our school, the Kindergarten hallway will now be known as the "Wes" Wing. Brendan Keown and Clark Sittig led all scorers for Assumption.

In their first Frenzy, our 6th grade girls defeated Our Lady of Peace from New Providence while Maggie Hulsy led all scorers with 17.

Going out with a bang, our 8th grade girls won a hard-fought game against St. Patrick's. Caroline Tully put the game out of reach in the final minutes, sinking 4 consecutive free throws. Ava Paguirigan was selected to the Girls All-Tournament Team and also received the Lt Brian Daly Conlan MVP Award, named after '57 OLS graduate who gave his life for our country.

CYO Finals

Buckle up, ladies and gentlemen. You can't script more drama and excitement than this. We have 4 teams competing for CYO glory this weekend.

SATURDAY

Our Fightin' Fifth Graders face Holy Family in a semi-final match-up, 3:45 in the OP Bain Gymnasium. Should they prevail, the final game is Sunday 11:50 in Bain.

Our 8th grade girls conclude their storied Assumption career with one last game -- the CYO Championship. It's the final game of the night, 6:40 OP DeGaeta vs OLMC. After 13 years of coaching service at Assumption, Coach Nasine is set on going out a Dam champion.

SUNDAY

Sunday brings us back-to-back championship action at Oratory.

Coach Hulsy's 6th grade girls are in search of back-to-back CYO championships as they take St. Lawrence at 2:40 in Bain. After they win, the crowd should march up the hill, hoisting their trophies, to DeGaeta gym.....

Where the undefeated 7th grade boys go for their second straight CYO championship against a very good St. Therese team whose only loss was to our Assumption boys. 4:10 start in DeGaeta gym.

GOOOOO ASSUMPTION!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
